

4. Read and write the names.

Who's who?

- I'm faster than Karen but slower than Jess. My hair is longer than Sonia's hair.
- I'm slower than Karen but I'm getting closer to her. Her colour hair is darker than mine.
- I'm faster than Lucy but she's more energetic. She's very near me!
- I'm faster than Sonia but Lucy and Jess are better than me.

5. Classify these comparative forms of adjectives according to the rules.

more / less entertaining

fatter

heavier

later

sadder

hotter

nicer

more / less difficult

bigger

larger

prettier

newer

funnier

slower

more / less interesting

Rule 1

stronger

Rule 2

happier

Rule 3

thinner

Rule 4

more / less famous

6. Think and write.

1. An animal that is taller than a dog but shorter than a horse:
2. A vehicle that is faster than a bicycle but slower than a plane:
3. A place that is colder than a desert but hotter than the Arctic:
4. A country that is bigger than Argentina but smaller than China: